DEATHS.

MIZE.

Isaac Mize died at his home in Powell county near Clay City on Friday morning Dec. 9th at four o'clock. He had been in delicate health for some years and for about two months had been confined at home with pneumonia. He was buried at Winchester on Saturday morning. Burial service was conducted by Rev. Walker pastor of the Christian church there and B. W. Trimble of this city. He was born near Irvine, Estill county, Feb. 17th 1841. He married Miss Edith Vaughn, of Estill. To them were born twelve children, of whom four are dead. Mesdames, J. M. Lockman, of Winchester, Walter Day, of Breathitt, and J. W. McKinney, of Estill are three daughters. Mr. Mize was the youngest child of Isaac Mize, Sr., and was a brother of Mrs. J. G. Trimble deceased. Of this large family only two sisters are living, Mrs. Lizzie Barnes, of Fort Smith, Ark., and Mrs. Fannie Benton of Irvine. Mr. J. G. Trimble and his sons Robert and Bruce attended the burial.

Signed.

The Treaty of Peace was signed at Paris on Saturday evening after 8 o'clock by the American and Spanish Commissioners. In addition to the relinquishment of Cuba and the ceding of Porto Rico and the Philippines, the United States pays expense of returning to Spain the Spanish soldiers in the colonies. The Spaniards are to return prisoners of war held by them, will retain all military stores and munitions of war in the Philippines and ships not captured.

The Originator Speaks.

The originator of low prices in high grade goods is always expected to be heard from. As long as we continue in business we will lead in quality and in prices. Our long experience has enabled us to forecast the time for buying. This year we have hit the market exactly right and large quantities have been bought at very low prices. We are ready for the holiday trade now, with our windows and show cases filled with the choicest of nuts, candies and fruits. Our stock of canned goods has never been surpassed, and notwithstanding we daily draw from our stock, we are able to replenish for the following morning. Last year we had the trade of the city in holiday goods in our line, and the same thing will be repeated this year. Very respectfully,

J. DAVIS SEWELL,

Originator of low prices in staple and fancy groceries, confectioneries, etc., etc.
